CJW 2018 March Meeting – Something NEW!

- Together we will explore a mix of history and modern technology that is creating the next generation of “builders”.
- Led by Director William Brown, we’ll discuss the mission of the Eli Whitney Museum, an experimental learning workshop for students, teachers and families, and how the Museum collects, interprets and teaches experiments that are the roots of design and invention.
- Get creative with a hands on project using the philosophies of the past.
- Be introduced to a CNC Router, a computer-controlled cutting machine, and its applications in modern production.
- Also hear about CJW Business Highlights and Club Updates.
- And enjoy a basic breakfast by Small Kitchen, Big Taste (made from scratch food, created with love) including a Bagel Bar with all the fixings, Vegetarian Frittata, Oat & Apple Muffins, Coffee/Tea/Juice.
