

Co-Director's Challenge 2017-2018 Scavenger (Photo) Hunt

'The road to success is always under construction' ~Lily Tomlin

Goal: Building a stronger CJW community.

Challenge: CJW Clubs participate in scavenger (photo) hunt.

Benefits: Fun, $0 cost competition between clubs that focuses on team participation, fun and problem solving. Chance to win fabulous prizes, bragging rights... and more importantly, opportunity to win items.

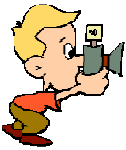

Dates: October 21, 2017 through March 25, 2018 (deadline).

Submit photos to: Alison Wells, alisonawells@att.net or Maryellen Friedrich, mfriedrich@cox.net.
Include Club name, Photo Mission #, brief description, date taken.

1. With Fire, Ambulance or Police personnel
2. At a State Landmark
3. With a construction vehicle
4. Growing something
5. Sharing something
6. Giving something
7. Club photo with ALL members present
8. Your pets!
9. Eating ice cream
10. Make a human formation of letters CJW
11. Constructing something
12. At a Club project
13. Photo of your choice... anything goes!
14. Club picture WITH another club
15. At a CJW Meeting

Rules:

1. Pictures must include at least 10% of total club members.
2. Each club can only turn in 15 photos.
3. No combining Missions into one photo (i.e #2 a state landmark and #6 your pets).
4. Be respectful in everything you do.
5. Obey the law! (if you choose otherwise, we are not bailing you out, but would love to hear the story!)
6. Get creative and have fun!

Awards: (presented at Spring Conference, anticipated May 5, 2018)

- Grand Prize: Club will be presented with items to donate to local charity of choice (possible items such as bikes, Legos, etc).
- Club Participation (all clubs participating will receive recognition awards)

Judging Criteria:

- # of Photo Missions Completed
- Element of Humor
- Completed and submitted by deadline
- 1st Club in = extra points
